Because some gifts outlive us

Make access to education a part of your life story

Transform children's lives and help break the cycle of poverty by leaving a gift to The Citizens Foundation Canada in your will.

A legacy gift is more than a donation. It is a reflection of your values, your compassion, and the future you want to help build. Through education, your story can live on in every child given the chance to learn.

You write your will, they write their future

The seeds you plant today shape tomorrow

Legacy giving allows your values to take root in the lives of others. Add TCF Canada in your will and help children access education, strengthen communities, create opportunities, and inspire hope for generations.

A gift in your will can plant the seeds of change that will flourish for generations to come.

The story your legacy can help write

Growing up in a slum in Karachi, Kainat's future seemed decided. One opportunity changed everything.

TCF welcomed her into its classrooms, giving her a space to learn, grow, and feel like she belonged. Her teachers patiently helped her build her foundation in subjects she once found impossible.

TCF's support led Kainat to renowned institutions, including Harvard, Oxford, and Whitman College, empowering her to build a brighter future and inspire generations.

The next story of hope can begin with you.
